educate for service

Our commitment is to Educate for Service. We believe that learning is most noble when used to benefit others, regardless of chosen career path. We prepare our students to lead rich lives of purpose and meaning, while advancing independent thought, personal integrity and social responsibility. These are the foundations for a life of learning. The College fosters values of peace, non-violence, human dignity and social justice.

student life

Outside of the classroom, students have the opportunity to choose from more than 80 clubs and student organizations to spend their time. The College encourages students to learn through relationships and get involved. Student life at E-town provides collaborative leadership for a holistic learning model that encourages personal growth, academic success, appreciation of diversity, and the capacity for life-long learning.

blue jay athletics

Elizabethtown College is a member of the NCAA Division III athletics with 20 competitive teams. E-town has teams playing in the Middle Atlantic Conference and the Commonwealth Conference. The wrestling team plays for the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Wrestling Association. Elizabethtown College Athletics has a legacy and tradition of winning. In the 2009-2010 season, three individual Elizabethtown athletes and three teams participated in their respective sports' NCAA Division III Championship. Eighteen athletes were Individual Conference Champions.

etown pride

*We hail thee Alma Mater dear,
As now we sing thy praise;
O let thy walls and storied halls
Resound with endless lays.*

*The strong and fair alike do share
The labour of thy hand;
Together they proclaim always Thy glory through the land.*

*As long as breezes 'round thee blow,
And countless ages roll,
May Heaven's blessings on thee rest, While we Thy name extol*

*We love thy sons so noble,
Thy daughters fair and true!
We love thee ever, oh E.C.
And thy colors Gray and Blue*

Food and Fun

Elizabethtown College's Senior Week 2010 kicked off on Wednesday, May 19th with an old fashioned Pig Roast. The Senior Pig Roast was grilled and smoked to perfection by Hess's Barbecue Caterers of Lancaster. This year was beautiful outside, so attendees enjoyed memories and lots of food on the Brossman Commons Back Patio and inside the KÁV.

The members of the Class of '10 started the second day of Senior Week with 'Starbucks & Memories' at the Raffensperger Alumni House. Seniors enjoyed freshly baked French pastries, fresh fruit, gourmet teas, and Starbucks Coffee as they laughed and cried over the memories pictured in the Senior Slide Show.

Another E-town Senior Week tradition is the Senior Adventure. This year didn't disappoint with fun, thrills, and water! Seniors had non-stop fun with unlimited miniature golf, go-karts, and bumper boats at Adventure Sports in Hershey. Every senior got to be a kid again! Attendees also got the chance to see all the movies they wanted for free at Movie-town in addition to free bowling at Clearview Lanes.

Picnic and Awards

On the evening of Thursday, May 20th, graduates were invited to the Raffensperger Alumni House garden for a picnic with the President and the Senior Class Toast. Students were treated with steak hot off the grill, mouthwatering barbecued chicken, and grilled portabella mushrooms in addition to very tempting desserts.

Ted and Betty Long personally welcomed all seniors. A champagne toast was also held to commemorate the years at Elizabethtown.

The final day of Senior Week was kicked off with 'The Morning After' breakfast in the Thompson Gym. Students enjoyed Starbucks Coffee, fresh fruit, and baked treats followed by graduation rehearsal.

Seniors were recognized at the All-College Picnic and Seniors' Choice Awards held in the Marketplace. The Class of 2010 waited in suspense to see who won the coveted awards during lunch.

Baccalaureate

Senior Week came to a close with the 2010 Baccalaureate Service held in Leffler Chapel on the evening of May 21st. The theme for this year's service was "A Time To..."

Seniors reflected on their time at Elizabethtown College. Students with many different majors and backgrounds walked on stage and discussed their college experience. Many gave credit to Elizabethtown's environment, its professors, and how this institution has changed them. In addition, the traditional Senior Choir was present and performed several musical ballads. The service ended with an experience similar to the Class of 2010's Induction into Elizabethtown College. Everyone in the chapel lit candles and reflected on Etown and its effect on them.

Following the ceremony, Reflections by the Lake was held by Lake Placida. This event offered a time of fellowship for graduating seniors and their guests and the College's faculty and staff. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and non-alcoholic beverages were served as all anticipated the Commencement Ceremony to be held the next day.

Commencement

Elizabethtown College held its 107th Commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 22, 2010. The College proudly presented 513 students who completed the necessary requirements to receive a degree. These students represented almost 20 majors and 80 minors and concentrations. Several graduates met the requirements to be inducted into one of the institution's honoraries.

This year, 20 graduates were members of the Elizabethtown College Honors Program. About 67 international and study abroad students stood among our graduates wearing multicolored sashes that represented the approximately 24 countries that they called home or were a location in which they studied.

This year's proceedings were led by Grand Marshal Thomas R. Leap '74 and Marshal Christina A. Bucher '75. President Theodore E. Long and Provost and Senior Vice President Susan Traverso conferred the degrees. The 2010 Commencement Address was given by Michael L. Lomax, President and Chief Executive Officer of UNCF. Also in attendance at this year's Commencement Ceremony was the graduating class of 1960. These members celebrated their 50th reunion at the ceremony.

class of 2013

With summer at an end, 500 first-year students made Elizabethtown, PA their new home, on August 27th. Upperclassmen helped move all of the first years' belongings into the dorms. And once parents had said their goodbyes and driven home, the class of 2013 began their orientation. Guided by their welcoming peer mentors, the students were engaged in many activities helping their transition into their new environment. Students had the opportunity to meet other classmates at activities like the Root Beer Float Luau, Battle of the Buildings, performances by school groups such as; Melica, Mad Cow, and Phalanx, campus tours, dessert at the Alumni house and the First-Year Walk. The new students got a chance to see their new community during the First Year Walk. First Years are guided by upper classmen throughout Elizabethtown, and some are randomly pulled from the large group to perform entertaining activities. First year students are also given the opportunity to become a part of Student Senate, at Campaign, where they can get up on stage in the Leffler Chapel and give an unplanned speech in hopes of receiving votes from their peers. The long weekend came to an end with Convocation in the Dell, marking the start of a new academic year.

As rain poured down on Friday, October 16th, students became disappointed in hearing that the annual homecoming parade was going to be canceled. The rain, however, didn't stop students, parents, and alumni from enjoying all of the other homecoming festivities. Mad Cow performers kicked off the weekend with their homecoming improv show. Although the parade was canceled, the floats that students worked hard on were still judged at the Elizabethtown Fairgrounds on Saturday morning. The Homecoming fair originally planned for outside on Brinser Field was moved inside to Thompson Gymnasium where different clubs on campus sold food, t-shirts, arts, crafts and everything you could think of. The Valerie Nicole Band and For the Greater Good still performed the Homecoming Alumni Concert, which was also moved into the Gymnasium. During the intermission of the Alumni Concert, The Homecoming Court presentation and announcement took place. Nick Andrews and Katy Kauffman were proclaimed Homecoming King and Queen. The Homecoming float winner was also announced and the Class of 2010 was the winner. Unfortunately, the rain canceled many of the sporting events that had been planned for the weekend. But students danced their way into the last day of Homecoming weekend at the student Homecoming dance sponsored by the Elizabethtown College Alumni Association. To wrap up the weekends activities, magician Craig Karges performed a mind-blowing show for families in the KAV, as they enjoyed lunch. Despite the rainy weekend, students, parents and alumni alike, still came out to enjoy all of the Homecoming festivities.

the memo- randum

This year's fall production at Elizabethtown College was The Memorandum. This play was written by Vaclav Havel and translated by Paul Wilson. Havel hailed from Czechoslovakia and has written many plays, but he was also a politician. He wrote the Memorandum in 1965, after realizing how absurd communism was. He wrote this piece to satirize what he and many others saw as an incredibly flawed political system. The play follows the plight of Andrew Gross, the head of a large, unnamed corporation, portrayed by freshman Ethan Shearer, as he tries to rid his company of a strange new artificial language called Ptydepe. However, his rival Balas, senior Ian Pape, always seems to be one step ahead of him. Gross desperately tries to understand the state of affairs within his own company, but he meets resistance at every turn and finds ridiculous rules that keep him from accomplishing anything. Overall the play is very mechanical and very repetitive, and this is often illustrated in the characters themselves, as well as in this particular production's set design, which featured a spinning stage. The main theme of the play centers around humanity. Other Elizabethtown students that performed in the production and added to the confusion and silliness of the plot include seniors Rachel Witkovsky, and Chloe Beveridge, junior Emily Knitter, sophomores Laura Robbins and Rachel Saul, and first year Kyle Kovatch. The production was directed by theatre professor, Michael Swanson and set design was done by Tom Hackman.

into the streets

Elizabethtown students blasted into the streets on October 24, 2009 to kick off the annual community wide service project day. Into the Streets is a program designed to introduce more students to thoughtful community service and to provide a learning experience that will challenge them to volunteer on a regular basis. In its 16th year, Into the Streets was started off by a rally on Friday night with performances by Phalanx, Melica, and several other groups. On Saturday morning the day began with a breakfast at 7:30 AM. There were approximately 600 registered volunteers and 43 student groups that donated their time throughout the day. There were 55 different projects that students were involved in. The projects were broken down into categories some of which included, youths, senior citizens, environment, and social issues and health. Students could read with children, serve as a tutor, rake, clean up along the Conewago Creek, plant trees, help local Spanish-speaking residents, along with many other activities. This day of service benefited not only the community but also the students. The day was about being involved in the community but also helping others and doing work. It acts as a great learning experience!

5 women wearing the same dress

Five Women Wearing The Same Dress debuted on Friday, February 12, 2010. The opening night was delayed due to snow, but as they say in the theater, the show must go on! This play, written by Alan Ball, is intensely character driven. It is the story of how five Tennessee bridesmaids and one usher survive the wedding of a woman they all despise. These outlandish characters are Meredith, the bride's rebellious younger sister (played by sophomore Clara DeAngelo); Trisha, a beautiful woman who no longer believes in love (played by senior Tammy Bateman); Georgeanne, a woman whose marriage is her (played by sophomore Jaclyn Light); Frances, an extremely devoted Christian (played by junior Meghan Timney); Mindy, the groom's loud and opinionated lesbian sister (played by junior Angela Wright); and finally Tripp, the usher who makes Trisha doubt her cynical outlook on relationships (played by first-year Kyle Kovatch). A great deal takes place in this show from ridiculous behavior to the discovery of long held secrets. The cast, who bonded a great deal over the course of rehearsals, really dove into these characters to figure out who they were and portrayed them beautifully. The play was directed by Michael Swanson with scenic and lighting design done by Tom Hackman.

mr. etown

A group dance, a guest appearance via skype, lip synced performances, a question and answer session, and a crowning, all made up an entertaining evening at Mr. Etown on Friday, March 26th in Leffler Chapel. Tom Hagerty and Matt Torresani hosted Etown's annual male beauty pageant, providing their own entertainment with quick wit and humorous costumes throughout the night. Steve DiGrazia, Nathan Shughart, Mike Mauger, Travis Lucas, Sam Ceron, Zach Landis, Ross Benincasa and Chris Tjaden were all chosen by their peers to represent Founders, Brinser, off-campus, Quads, Royer, Apartments, Myer, and Ober, respectively. The eight contestants spent the night showing off their moves in an attempt to win the title of Mr. Etown. With the help of some of the members of Emotion, the contestants pulled off performances with an array of themes, such as Lords of the Dance, A day in the life of Mike Mauger, and Divaš. The boys enhanced their performance with appearances from the Flintstones, Tiger Woods, and even Grandmothers. This year's judges, had help from the students in choosing the winner of this years pageant with a new text to vote feature. Students could cast their vote for Mr. Etown with their cell phones during intermission. At the end of the voting it was announced that 2010's Mr. Etown was Nathan Shughart! Travis Lucas came in second, and Chris Tjaden took home third place at the end of the night!

relay for life

The school organization Colleges Against Cancer spent all year planning for its biggest event, Relay For Life. Held on April 10th-April 11th, the event began at 6pm, going through the night and into the morning until 6am. Over 600 participants signed up to spend the night walking around the track in the Thompson Gymnasium. This event was kicked off by welcoming survivors and all of the teams who were participating. This year's theme was "Dessert Cancer". Participants were encouraged to bake cakes with a survivorship theme, which could be entered into the cake contest, one of the many activities that occurred throughout the night. Other activities that participants could enter their teams in were 4 square, large pong, a blindfolded race, volleyball and soccer. Teams battled for points in these events and also the themed laps that occurred every hour in hopes of winning a prize at the end of the night. Also during the night, students could visit the midway fair in the Jay Walk, where teams did on site fundraising to raise last minute donations by selling items like food, drinks, and t-shirts. To keep students motivated throughout the night different groups like Phalanx, Vocalign, For the Greater Good, Melica, and Emotion performed. Also a Luminaria service was held to honor those who have been touched by cancer, and remember those who have lost to the disease. During this time the lights were turned out, and the Luminaria bags all around the track illuminated the path for walking. Participants were also encouraged to help raise awareness about cancer, during the Fight Back Ceremony. As the sun began to rise and teams finished their last laps around the track, they gathered to hear the amount of money that had been raised. Committee members slowly revealed the amount showing everyone that $74,749 had been raised.

junior/ senior

The students at Elizabethtown College have many traditions to look forward to from year to year. The Junior/Senior Formal is one of these occasions. This is a time for upperclassmen to shed their sweatpants and sweatshirts and dress up. Ladies found the perfect dresses while the gentlemen put on their suits for a night of good food, good company and great dancing. The Junior Class Senate researches, plans, and executes this event year after year with new ideas each time. This year's theme was Old Hollywood, and took place at The Four Points Sheraton in Harrisburg. Students were welcome to the check-in in afternoon then get dressed and socialize with their friends prior to the main event. It was a beautiful evening beginning with a slideshow of pictures and music during the cocktail hour followed by dinner. Event goers had a choice of steak or chicken served with rice and vegetables. After the main course was served, students enjoyed dessert. Dinner concluded and students returned to socializing. Then the main event started: dancing. The Student Senate brought back the amazing disc jockey from last year to entertain students. E-town students and their dates then danced the night away and made memories to talk about for many years to come.

"Life's a Beach" or at least it was on the weekend of April 29th - May 1st for students at E-town. The Office of Student Activities sponsors the T.G.I.S. weekend (Thank Goodness It's Spring) full of activities for students to participate in. The weekend started out with students splashing into the Thompson Pool, for a pool party with music, games and food. Thursday night students were also given the opportunity to go mini-golfing at the Village Greens in Strasburg, or sit back, relax, and watch "Finding Nemo" in Gobble. The fun didn't stop there though, Friday was filled with more activities including a Sand Volleyball tournament and Atlantic City Night where students could try their luck at Blackjack, Texas Hold'Em, and many other games. The weekend came to an end with one last full day of activities on Saturday. Students gathered on Brinser field in the afternoon where they could run through a Slip & Slide, or obstacle courses, play water tag, skeeball, mini-hoops, make a spin art Frisbee or get scopes taken with friends. All while enjoying a variety of boardwalk foods. Later that night students were able to bring their own blankets to Wolf Field and play bingo under the lights and stars. The night didn't stop there though, Midnight breakfast was available in the blue bean for students to crunch their cravings before hitting up the Jersey Shore dance, the last event in the T.G.I.S. weekend.

the crucible

Elizabethtown College's final show of the 2009-2010 school year was The Crucible. The play opened Thursday, April 22nd. The show was an emotional roller coaster for all the cast members and required them to put a great deal of heart into it. The Crucible tells the grim tale of the citizens of Salem during the infamous witch trials. It all starts out with Reverend Parris, played by senior Stephen McGonigle, daughter Betty falling ill, after her father discovers her and her friends dancing in the woods. Reverend Hale, junior Peter Starr, comes to town to determine whether or not the sickness is caused by witchcraft. After some trickery by the leader of the girls, Abigail Williams, played by junior Emily Knitter, he decides that the devil is in Salem and the accusations begin to fly. The audience learns that Abigail has had an affair with the married John Proctor, played by senior Ian Pape, and that she hopes to use the witch trials to kill his wife Elizabeth, senior Emily Grove. John and his friends must try to convince the town that the girls' are liars in order to save their wives and friends. The playwright, Arthur Miller, uses this piece to show the audience the danger of a witch hunt, not only in puritan times but today as well. He specifically meant to draw a parallel between the play and the McCarthy trials that were being conducted at the time it was written, but as the director for Etown's particular production, Terry Mastrobuono, believes the lesson is still prevalent to this day. Set design was done by Tom Hackman. This was his last show at Elizabethtown College.

CROSS COUNTRY

At the season opener of the Elizabethtown College Men's cross-country season, they finished seventh out of nine teams, at the Navy Invitational. From there they won the Short Course championship at the Dickinson College Long/Short Course Invitational, with their top five runners finishing in the top 25. Continuing to do well the men's cross country team finished fifth out of 28 schools at the Inter-Regional Rumble. And then, for the second consecutive year, Elizabethtown College finished first at the Battle for the Buggy men's cross country meet. The cross-country men then headed for the Middle Atlantic Conference, where they took home their tenth MAC championship title. Elizabethtown head coach Chris Straub was honored as MAC Coach of the Year for the eighth time in his career as four Blue Jays finished in the top 10 and three more in the top 15 out of 134 runners. The Blue Jays were selected to the 32-team field after finishing fifth at the Mideast Regional championships. The team finished fifth and sophomore Eric Reichert finished fourth overall, earning him an automatic spot at the NCAA Division III Cross Country Championships. Their at-large bid was one of 16 and their fifth appearance at nationals in the past 10 years. Reichert became the school's fourth men's cross country runner to earn All-America status as he finished 23rd overall at the NCAA Division III Championships. As a team, Elizabethtown placed 28th out of 32 teams.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Elizabethtown College women's cross-country team opened its 2009 season with a second-place finish at the Lebanon Valley College Invitational. The Blue Jays continued to do well tying for fifth out of a total of 25 teams in the Short Course race at Dickinson College Invitational. At the Inter-Regional Rumble, the team finished 13th of out 25 schools. The Blue Jay Women went on to compete at the Middle Atlantic Conference Championships, winning their third consecutive MAC cross-country championship. Blue Jay senior Megan VanDenHengel won the individual championship and was named MAC Runner of the Year for her performance in the meet. Head coach Brian Falk was honored as MAC Coach of the Year for the second straight year after all 12 of his runners finished in the top half of the field of 129 runners, including nine in the top 50. The team then qualified to compete at the NCAA Division III Mideast Regional Championships. The women finished sixth at the Regional Championships, and VanDenHengel received one of the spots to compete at the women's championships, making this her second trip to nationals. Out of 279 runners VanDenHengel placed 101st overall, finishing off the season.

HEAR ME

"The dynamics of our team completely changed entering this season. We had a lot of new faces and lost many seniors from last year. We knew we had a lot of work to do but we all believed in ourselves and set out to accomplish our dream of winning a third consecutive MAC title. We went out on championship day and raced one of our best races as a team. It all came together and we ended up winning. That is a moment I am never going to forget. This season was unforgettable."

Megan VanDenHengel, Sr.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Lady Jays entered the 2009 season with a new head coach and high hopes for the season. Elizabathtown alum and Blue Jay standout on the field hockey field, Brandy Michael, took the role and hoped to bring the 2009 team as much success as she had during her career. Despite the change in leadership, the Lady Jays had a winning season, finishing with records of 11-7 overall and 5-3 in the conference. In the midst of their season, the team went on a seven-game winning streak, but couldn't hold onto this success into the end of the season. The team landed a spot in the Commonwealth conference semifinals, and lost to Lebanon Valley by a score of 1-5. Four players on the Lady Jays were named to the All-Commonwealth Conference field hockey team. Senior Caitlin Smith and Junior Julie Foster both received first-team selections while seniors Brenna Noon and Liz Hannegan received second-team selections. Both the Lady Jays and new head coach Brandy Michael hope to capitalize on their success this season and bring home a title next season.

GOLF

Elizabethtown College golf team opened their spring portion of its 2009-10 season by tying for second place at the York College Spring Invitational. The golf team went on to host the Blue Jay Classic, where they finished seventh out of 12 teams. At the Susquehanna University Invitational the men finished third out of 12 teams. The Elizabethtown College Blue Jays went on to finish third out of eight teams at the Commonwealth Conference Men's Golf Championships. The Blue Jays won their first-ever conference title in 2008, and went on to win it again in 2009. The Jays were hoping for its third straight Commonwealth Conference golf championship. However the two-time defending tournament champions, were placed in fifth after the opening round and then climbed their way up two spots to finish in third. The top finisher for the Blue Jays was Dan Senkler, who placed third in the tournament.

This year the men's soccer team at Elizabethtown College displayed a great deal of skill ending the season at 14-4, with one tied game. The Jays started off the season well when they defeated Neumann University 4-0 in the season opener. They continued winning against every team they faced from New York City Tech to the University of La Verne to Wilkes University. This was the team's best start since 1982 with a record of 7-0. Sadly their streak was broken soon after when they were defeated 1-0 by Drew University. Despite this loss, the team bounced back during a game against Immaculata University winning 8-2. Juniors Tony Pacella, Cameron Gettel, and Taylor Helsel all helped their team on its way to victory. The three were named All-Commonwealth Conference for 2009. First-years Javiem Blanchett and Giovanni Correa, and senior Luke Mitchell all earned second team honors. Sophomore Dan Featherer and first-year Ross Withrow also contributed to their team's success. Both players were named Commonwealth Conference player of the week at different times throughout the season. Other seniors on the team include Steve Malm and Chris Rice. Arthur "Skip" Roderick continued his position as head coach of the team as he has done since 1983. Assistant coaches include Graham Small, Jason Petronis, Joe Longnecker, Seamus Donnelly, and Gene Clemens.

The Lady Blue Jays of the Elizabethtown Women's Soccer team started their season with high moral, having been voted to place second in the Commonwealth Conference. While the season opener was lost on Sept. 5, 2009 to Allegheny, the team retaliated in their second game against Rutgers-Camden with a win of 2-1 in overtime. Midseason, the Lady Jays had a three game winning streak against Alvernia, Misericordia, and Millersville, all with 1-0 records. The team took a final in-season at home against Messiah, 0-5. However, with three of 19 games going into overtime, two into double overtime, and close wins and losses all over the board, it's safe to say our women's soccer team played hard, and won hard. With an overall record of 9-10, and a record of 4-3 in the Commonwealth Conference games, the Jays placed third in the conference. Three of the players, first-years Laura Wingert and Amy Bunting and junior Kelly Fisher, were named all conference.

HEAR ME

"Through the ups and downs of the season, we really came together as a team. These girls are like family. Winning a few more games and beating Messiah would've made for an even better season, but ending it in the conference play-offs is not something to be disappointed about."

TENNIS

The 2009-2010 Women's Tennis team dominated the Commonwealth Conference this season. In their season opener against Arcadia University, the Blue Jays beat the Knights 8-1. Following their season opener, the team won the next five matches, giving them a record of 6-0. The Lady Jays continued this success throughout the rest of their regular season. In fact, the team swept seven of their 17 regular season matches beating out teams like Messiah, Albright, and Lycoming, among others. In the postseason, the team shut out Alvernia University to earn them a spot in the Commonwealth Conference Championships against Lebanon Valley College. The Lady Jays were able to edge LVC and sweep them 5-0, earning them their fourth Commonwealth Conference title in the past six years.

Seniors Jess Russell and Emily Swarr shared the tournament Most Valuable Player honors. With the win, Elizabethtown earns an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Women's Tennis Championships. The team, however, lost the first round to Johns Hopkins University. Ending the season with an overall record of 15-5 and a Conference record of 6-0, five players earned All-Conference honors, Head Coach Matt Helsel was named Coach of the Year and first year Allison Burkhardt was honored as Rookie of the Year. Burkhardt also earned first team honors along with seniors Jess Russell and Emily Swarr, while first years Kristi Noecker and Madison Pipkin were second-team selections. This is Coach Helsel's fifth time being Coach of the Year in the past eight years.

VOLLEYBALL

The Blue Jays had their eyes set on a fourth-consecutive trip to the Commonwealth Conference this season. Having won their first conference crown in 2007, but losing the title last year, the girls were ready to take another run at the championships. The Elizabethtown College volleyball team opened up their regular season with four consecutive wins, and closed the season with a pair of victories giving them a 19-9 record overall. In the teams match against Lycoming College the Blue Jays locked in the Commonwealth Conference playoff with their 3-1 win. The team then dominated Messiah College in the Commonwealth Conference volleyball semifinals. Lebanon Valley College, however, defeated Elizabethtown College at the Commonwealth Conference volleyball championships. The Blue Jays finished their season 20-10 overall, and placed second in the Commonwealth Conference with a 6-1 record. As for the players, senior Kayla Deats, middle hitter, was named to the American Volleyball coaches Association All-Mid-Atlantic Region team. She was also selected to the All-Commonwealth Conference team, along with three other Blue Jays.

BASKETBALL

This year the men's basketball team at Elizabethtown College performed well. Despite a disappointing opener where they lost to Manhattanville College 73-63, they ended the season with a 16-9 record. They also secured fourth place in the Commonwealth conference this year. Senior Mike Church and junior Keith Fogel helped greatly in contributing to the team's achievements. Church, the lead scorer on the team, averaged 15.3 points a game while Fogel came in a close second at 14 points a game. Church and Fogel were both named All-

Commonwealth Conference, with Church as first pick and Fogel as second. Over the course of the season the Blue Jays defeated teams like Messiah College, the University of Scranton, Lebanon Valley College, and Widener University. Other seniors on the team include Chris Jones, Andrew Corrigan, and Josh Houseal. The head coach this year was Bob Schlosser, who has coached the team for the past 20 years. Assistant coaches included Barry Acker, Justin Edwards, Charlie Bowen, and Ken Howard.

The Womens' Basketball team opened the season against Moravian College on November 15 to a loss of 44-79. The Lady Blue Jays wouldn't be down for long, as they attained their first win (83-62) on November 21 against Brooklyn College at the Franklin & Marshall Tip-Off Tournament. The ladies played with character and heart throughout the season as they didn't stay down for long after a loss. It is because of this attitude that they ended the season on a high note. The team closed the seasons with two wins against Lycoming College (86-54) and Arcadia University (67-63). Coaches Kauffman, Cieslinski, and Travitz lead the ladies to an overall record of 8-16, and a conference record of 4-10. Junior guard Megan Strohman was named second-team All-Commonwealth Conference, after scoring 58 three-pointers this season. The team bids farewell this year to guard Courtney Kofeldt, guard Jen Schiefer, and forward Ali Jury, the teams' three seniors.

Both the Men and Women's Elizabethtown Swim Team opened their season with a victory over Arcadia University. The women came away with a 114-76 victory and the men came away with a 94-61 victory. The women went on to beat Messiah with a 118-85 win while the men were defeated. Both the men and the women were defeated by Lycoming College but they redeemed themselves in a Middle Atlantic Conference at King's College. The men had a 99-18 victory while the women won with a 130-54 victory. Both the men and the women kept the victory up with a win over FDU-Florham, another Middle Atlantic Conference. The ladies kept up the victory by defeating Lebanon College, while the men lost with a close score of 99-93. Both teams were defeated in their next four meets by York College, Washington College, Albright College, and Widener University. The teams closed their season with a non-conference meet against McDaniel College. The men lost, however the women took away a victory.

The 2009-2010 Elizabethtown Wrestling team started the season off right by placing first at the Messiah Invitational. The Blue Jays lost the next two matches against Kutztown University and Delaware Valley College and came in 6th place out of 10 teams at the York Invitational. The team then got fired up again and won six of the next nine matches, bringing their record to 8-3 overall. At the Metropolitan Conference Championship, the team earned 72.5 points earning them 3rd place out of 9 teams. Three Blue Jays earned berths to the NCAA Division III Championships from their success at the Conference Championships, including 2009 All-American Tyler Erdman, Junior Bill Meaney and first year Tye Boyer, who also won co-Rookie of the Year. Head Coach Eric Walker also earned Metropolitan Coach of the Year. At the Division III Championships, the team finished 17th out of the 59 teams that competed. Erdman finished as the runner-up, making him the third Elizabethtown Wrestler to be a two-time All-American.

BASEBALL

At the start of the 2010 season, the Elizabethtown College Baseball Team was picked to finish second overall in the Commonwealth Conference baseball preseason coaches poll. Last year, the Blue Jays finished in first place at the Commonwealth Conference going 29-15 overall and 12-3 in conference games. The team showed that they wanted a repeat of last season by winning 22 of their 37 regular season games. After beating Alvernia University and Messiah College in the Commonwealth Conference Playoffs, the team advanced to the conference finals against Widener University, a rematch of last year's tournament championship. The Jays couldn't come back after Widener scored 11 runs in the first three innings of the first game. In the second game, the score was tied at five in the sixth when Widener hit a two-run homerun to take the lead and the title back from the Blue Jays. The Jays ended their season with a record of 24-16 overall and 11-7 in the conference and second in the Commonwealth Conference. Six members of the team were placed on the All-Commonwealth Conference baseball team. Senior Ryan Barrett was a first-team selection while First-Year Dillon Tagle, Sophomore Steve Motika, and Seniors Rodney Francis, Matt Vinagro and Brian Kiernan earned second team status.

SOFTBALL

The Elizabethtown College softball team opened its 2010 season with a pair of games at the National Training Center Spring Games, in Clermont Florida. The Blue Jays went on to finish their season with the first winning record for the program since 2003. They finished 18-13-1 overall and in fourth place in the Commonwealth Conference. Elizabethtown College was eliminated from the Commonwealth Conference softball tournament with a 3-2 loss to Widener. However four players were placed on the All-Commonwealth Conference softball team, Courtney Comstock (catcher) and Sarah Church (infield) were first-team selections while Paige Tanner (infield) and Lindsey Cooper (outfield) were second-team picks. Tanner and Church also became the 12th and 13th players in program history to reach 100 career hits during the Jays season. Two first year players were named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-East Team. Infielder Elly McCarthy was a first-team selection as a utility player, while catcher Courtney Comstock was an at-large selection to the third team.

HEAR ME

"Our season has been extremely fun! We came together as more of a family and have had great success because of it. Our "never say die" attitude has taken us to new heights and we have made a positive impact on one another as well as the college community"

LACROSSE

For the first time in the program's nine-year history, the Elizabethtown College men's lacrosse team received votes in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association Division III Coaches Poll. But this wasn't the only highlight of the men's season. In the team's game against Alvernia they set a school record of seven consecutive victories with their 18-2 win. The men earned the top seed in their respective tournament after winning their regular season championship and claiming their first-ever first-place finish. Unfortunately Widener beat out the Blue Jays in the MAC Semifinals with an 8-5 victory. Senior attack Aaron Weber, however, was named The Middle Atlantic Conference Player of the Year in men's lacrosse. Weber was joined on the first team by midfielder Jon Day and defender Chris Day while junior long-stick midfielder Mike Kenneally was a second-team selection. Weber was also named honorable mention Division III All-America as well as a Scholar All-American by the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association. He holds the program single season record for goals, assists and points. Weber scored at least one point in 60 of his 61 career games. The Blue Jays finished their season with 12-4 overall and 10-1 in the MAC.

"This is the best team in our program's history and we are led by a tough and physical defense. They pressure and harass opponents forcing turnovers and create opportunities for our offense."

Elizabethtown women's Lacrosse team lost their team's top three scorers from last season (to graduation) and three starters from this year's squad (to injury). Despite this, they finished their season on a high note this season. Overall the girls finished 16-5 in the season and had an undefeated record of 12-0 in the Middle Atlantic Conference. One of their biggest accomplishments was placing first in the MAC, their first MAC championship in program history. The Blue Jays made their first appearance in the NCAA Division III tournament. The girls played against Washington & Lee University in the first round game where they pulled out a 13-12 win, before being eliminated by the University of Mary Washington in the second round. The team was ranked 18th in the final Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association Division III Poll. The Blue Jays coach Mike Faith was honored after guiding the girls to their first conference championship by being named Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. Individual honors were also given to several of the players on the team. Senior attack Stephanie Kreis was named Middle Atlantic Conference Player of the Year. And six other girls were also honored as All-Conference selections, including midfielder Katie Caprinolo, defender Alexis Morris, attack Megan Byrnes, midfielder Meg Cassels, defender Anna Meerbach, and midfielder Sarah Cullinan. Four of these girls were also named to the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association All-Metro region team, including Cullinan, Caprinolo, Morris, and Kreis. Caprinolo also received another honor, being named a third-team All-America by the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association, along with Morris who was named third-team All-America by womenslacrosse.com. Morris also earned a spot on the All-Rookie Squad.

TENNIS

After losing their first match of the season to Baldwin-Wallace College 8-1, the 2010 Men's Tennis Team bounced back to only lose four more matches for the rest of the season. The team dominated their schedule shutting out teams like Stevenson College, Albright University, and Misericordia College. Midway through the season, the Blue Jays beat Messiah College 8-1 to secure a spot in the playoffs, even with 4 more games left in the regular season. At the end of the regular season, the Blue Jays finished with a record of 12-4, with an undefeated record in the Commonwealth Conference. In the first round of the Commonwealth Conference playoffs, the team beat Lebanon Valley College by a score of 5-1, sending them to the Conference finals against Lycoming College. In the finals, the Blue Jays couldn't hold on to a 4-1 advantage as Lycoming soared past them winning the match 5-4 and claiming the Conference title. Etown finished their season with an overall record of 13-5 and 6-0 in the Commonwealth Conference. Four Blue Jays were named to the All-Commonwealth Conference men's tennis team. First-year Joss Riehl was named Rookie of the Year and also selected to the first-team along with Sophomore Manrique Arrea and Junior Bryan Metz and senior Brok Walker were second-team picks.

HEAR ME

"This season has been very successful and rewarding. This team has the most talent that I have seen in my four years here, and we worked hard to earn another undefeated regular season in the Commonwealth Conference. It is rewarding to look back on the season and recognize that we accomplished much of what we set out to do early in the year."

TRACK & FIELD

The men's track and field team had high hopes coming into the 2009-2010 season after coming in 2nd place in the Middle Atlantic Conference Indoor Championships and 1st place in the Outdoor Championships. They started the season off on the right foot at the Navy Invitational as the Blue Jays received no fewer than eight performances that cracked the program's all-time top 10 rankings that day. The team continued to dominate the indoor portion of the season. At the Orange and Maroon Classic at Susquehanna, senior Tim Katza-man broke his own school record in the weight throw by three feet and became the first Blue Jay to crack the 40-foot milestone. Despite their hard work, the Blue Jays came in 3rd place at the MAC Indoor Championships. Starting the outdoor portion, senior Mike Torre set a school record in the javelin throw at the Millersville University Spring Classic. The team had the same success in the outdoor portion of the season, finishing third in the MAC Outdoor Championships.

HEAR ME

"We have some new faces. It's a new year, we're all working extremely hard, and our goal remains the same: MAC champions."

TRACK AND FIELD

The Elizabethtown College Women's Track and Field team started the 2010 season off at Ursinus College Winter Invitational. The team finished sixth out of 18 teams. First year Jenna Niedermayer performed well for her collegiate debut by finishing fourth in the long jump with a mark of 16 feet, 5 ¾ inches. This jump placed her second on the program's all-time performance list. Niedermayer wasn't the only Blue Jay setting records this season. At the Penn State National Invitational, Sophomore Kathryn Howser set a school record in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:18.86 breaking the previous record by almost two seconds. The Blue Jays finished third out of 11 teams in the Middle Atlantic Conference Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships. Niedermayer earned the Rookie of the Year honor. The team kicked off the spring outdoor season at the Millersville University Spring Opener. Senior Megan VanDenHengel finished first in her steeplechase debut. She narrowly missed breaking the program record by a mere 27 hundredths of a second. The team went on to finish second at the Middle Atlantic Conference championships. Elizabethtown swept the top four places and five of the top six in the 10,000 meters. VanDenHengel qualified for the NCAA Division III Championship after winning the steeplechase at the Lions Last Chance Meet held at The College of New Jersey. She finished off her last season placing 12th nationally in steeplechase.

announcements

1. The first announcement is the most important. It sets the tone for the rest of the event. Make sure it is clear, concise, and to the point. Use a friendly and professional tone. Avoid using jargon or technical terms. Keep it short and snappy. Use a mix of verbal and non-verbal communication. Be confident and enthusiastic. Practice your announcement. Get feedback from others. Be prepared for any questions or objections. Thank the audience for their attention. End on a positive note.

Ojala que siempre conseves alegria y energia como en tu niñez.

We hope you will always have the happiness you had as a child.

Querido Fran:

En este momento importante de tu vida queremos felicitarte y desearte todo lo mejor a lo largo de tu camino. Para eso usaremos las mismas palabras de inmensa alegría que expresaste cuando en tu niñez, visitaste este maravilloso parque en Dinamarca. Entonces te decimos: Fran, sentimos que, "nuestros ojos llegan al cielo de felicidad" cuando vemos que con todos tus esfuerzos llegaste a una de tus metas, y no importa que elecciones te brinde la vida, recuerda, nosotras siempre estaremos a tu lado, seremos tu soporte para alentarte.

Felicitaciones, we love you very much.
Dios te bendiga siempre.
Mami, Giorgi, and baby Giova.

Dear Frank,

At this important time of your life we want to congratulate you and wish you the best along your road. To do that we will use the same words of immense happiness that you expressed when you visited this marvelous park in Denmark as a child. So we say to you Frank: We feel that "our eyes will arrive at the sky of happiness" when we see that with all your determination you arrived at one of your goals, and no matter what path life leads you down, remember, we will always be there to support you and cheer you on.

Congratulations, te queremos muchisimo.
God bless you always.

Ryan Barrett

Ryan,

You have faced some very difficult times in your life and you always fought back. You were never a quitter. We never quite imagined this far ahead. We were caught up in the excitement of your little world where there were always happy and fun times, and cherished everything that went along with you being a little boy and yes even those sad tough times. It's still hard for us to comprehend how we got from that little boy to a fine young man. Here is good!

You are a strong and determined person. We know that whatever you do with the rest of your life will be as great as your first 22 years. Always remember where you came from and the values you grew up with. Believe in yourself, as we do, and nothing will be beyond your reach. Never forget we are proud of you.

We love you and will always be there for you. You will be our little dinkster forever.

Love always,
Mom & Dad

Kaitlin Bonnar

Dear Katie,

Well, you finally made it - Congratulations on a job well done! You have accomplished so much and yet you are only beginning to scratch the surface. We are so proud of you! Best of luck in your future endeavors.

On Endings...

*There will always be ending,
Bittersweet endings,
Filled with treasured memories of days gone by.
But with all endings come new beginnings.
New beginnings filled with more laughter, more tears,
More courage, more fears
More love, more caring,
More hope, more despairing.
New beginnings filled with new adventures, new friendships, new experiences.
Yet, the past will always be a part of our lives which we will often recall.
Sometimes with fondness, sometimes with regret,
But always with knowledge of internal growth.
The time has come for yet another ending
Let this ending be your new beginning.
May each day your life touches be filled with everlasting faith.
Surround yourself with it.
For if you have the courage to believe in yourself,
You will be resilient to whatever life has in store for you.
You will be able to endure anything and succeed.
Even the pain of bittersweet endings.*

Christopher McCooey

Christopher –

When we look at you and the amazing man you are, we know that this milestone in your life is just one more of many yet to come. We are so blessed because you have brought so much joy and pride into our lives. You are a giving, loving, supportive, caring, compassionate man, son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend. All who are touched by you are better for having had the experience and we know no matter where your life path takes you, you will make a positive difference.

With much love – always,
Momma & Katie
And all those who love you!

We must become the change we want to see in the world!

Michael Nelson

Dear Mikey,

My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too.

We love you!

Mom, Dad, Kristen and Danielle

Ryan Allard

Dear Ryan,

You've grown up to become an amazing young woman. You're kind, thoughtful, and empathetic, while at the same time, ambitious, focused, and hard working. We respect the way you live your life; achieving your goals while also finding time to help others and enjoy the simple things. We couldn't be prouder. May you live the life you've always imagined.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Rowdy & Taylor

Allison Andrews

Dear Allison,

It seems like only yesterday that you were taking your first steps and now you are taking one of your biggest steps, graduating from college. We are very proud and overwhelmed with joy and happiness with what you have accomplished and in the wonderful young woman you have become. You have been blessed with wonderful gifts and talents to share with others. Always keep your warm, beautiful smile and life will smile back at you. Ahead of you is a bright and exciting and successful future!

Congratulations!!!

All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jeffrey

Lauren Canzanese

Dear Lauren,

From the day you were born, you have brought so much joy into our lives. Your determination, your sense of humor and your loyalty to those around you, make us so proud of you.

As you leave Elizabethtown, with so many wonderful friends and memories, we pray that you continue to find true joy, happiness and love in all you do and in all you meet.

We can't wait to see what the future holds...We love you!

Mollie Eckert

It's hard to believe you are ready to take another huge step in your life. It seems like just yesterday that you were a little girl playing with your dolls and toys and now you have grown into a beautiful young woman ready to graduate from college.

I could not wish for a more beautiful and loving daughter. You have come through some difficult times but God was always there for you and he will be to guide you along the way. You have the potential to do great things and succeed in whatever you do. May your future be filled with peace and happiness and may all your dreams come true. Remember and cherish the many friends you made.

Caitlin,

Your accomplishments throughout college have been remarkable. You have succeeded beyond your own expectations. Your kind and loving ways have touched many. The lacrosse games and tailgates, winter and spring break trips, jazz band concerts, campus activities, award ceremonies and the abroad trips to Ecuador and Spain have been awesome and enjoyed by all of us. May your amazing journey continue to soar as you pursue your dreams and ambitions. We wish you Success and God's Bless-

Jessica Russell

Dear Jessica,
Our gift to you is much more than a college education and new car. Hopefully, it is a family tradition of values (from both the Herrings and Russells) that you will continue, and pass along to others. We're proud of your accomplishments – academics, intership, and NCAA tennis tournaments – and wish you the best of everything!

Love always,

Caitlin Smith

Dear Caitlin,

Congratulations. We're very proud of you and it's been wonderful watching you grow into a beautiful and talented leader. We're sure your future will even exceed your great accomplishments over the past four years.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kevin Smith

Dearest Kevin,

Where have your college years gone? It seems like just yesterday, you were leaving home for your first year of college, and we were coming to visit you during Homecoming. We can remember during your freshman year orientation, how one of the professors told the parents to let your student spread his wings and not to smother him with weekly phone calls and emails. You have definitely learned to spread your wings during your four years at Elizabethtown College. You have grown into a very responsible and motivated young adult. Your future is extremely bright and promising! We are enormously proud of you!

With love,
Mom and Dad

Timothy Stepp

Tim,
 Primary to your accomplishments is the continued belief in yourself. Our hope is that you find the path that suits your dreams and beliefs. Congratulations, we love you very much. Mom, Dad, and Drew

On behalf of the Conestogan Yearbook, our editorial board would like to congratulate the entire Class of 2010. Good Luck in all your future endeavors.

Colophon

Elizabethtown College
Founded 1822

The Conestogan Yearbook, volume 88, was produced by a select few of Elizabethtown College students. Taylor Publishing in Dallas, Texas printed the publication, which was overseen by plant account executive Robert Porter. Elizabethtown College's local representative, Ed Patrick, Jr. offered assistance in production stages, financial matters, and contributed ample advice. Also from Taylor Publishing, Creative Artist Seana Litt aided in the hands-on aspects of the book. Individual student portraits, in addition to a vast majority of candid, were taken by Herff Jones Photography, Inc., which was represented by account executive Mark Huff. One high-end Canon EOS Rebel XT_i was used for the campus life and club group shots, with all photographs being printed in the CMYK format. This year's cover was designed by the Conestogan staff, with support given by Stephen Williams from Taylor Publishing. The 2010 edition was produced using two Dell Optiplex 755 machines running Microsoft Windows XP and Adobe Creative Suite 3. In the Creative Suite, InDesign and Photoshop were used for layout design and image manipulation, respectively. Fonts that were applied throughout the book included, but were not limited to: Maximo, Birch, Alfonso, Bauhaus, Athena, Rinna, Import, and Palatino Linotype
